Buyers Guarantee

All catalog horses sell sound, by the definition stated below, with a 72-hour guarantee unless otherwise stated by the seller.

WE ADVISE ALL BUYERS TO DO A PRE-PURCHASE EXAMINE ON ANY HORSES THAT YOU ARE INTERESTED IN PURCHASING.

DEFINITION OF SOUNDNESS

(FOR FULL DEFINITION OF OUR SOUNDNESS PLEASE SEE TERMS AND CONDITIONS)

Sound, by the definition of FORT SMITH HORSE & MULE SALE means:

- Moving free of a limp or abnormality of gait on all four legs as viewed by external examination. (This does not include an extensive lameness exam with flexion test, x-rays, or ultrasound examination.)
- Can see out of both eyes.
- Does not crib (suck wind), does not weave, low back, and is not proud cut.
- We do not accept any imaging as a form of unsoundness.
- If selling a stud or mare as a reproduction animal, we will require a vet letter stating that they are breeding sound.

Should a soundness issue be noticed within 72 hours of purchase the buyer is to contact Fort Smith Horse & Mule Sale immediately. You will be asked to send in pictures and a video. The horse will need to be brought to Fort Smith Horse & Mule Sale to be examined by the Salebarn Manager. The final decision is to be made by the horse sale manager and all decisions are final.

PURCHASE AGREEMENT

Buyer is responsible for inspecting their horse for any undisclosed imperfections before leaving the premises. If an issue is noticed the buyer is responsible for bringing it to the attention of the horse sale manager.

All horses sold through the catalog are subject to the 72-hour catalog guarantee unless otherwise stated by the seller as disclosed in the statement at the top.

All horses purchased through non-catalog sale are sold as-is with no exceptions, unless announced in the auction ring to the auctioneer. All guarantees for non-catalog horses are strictly between the buyer and the seller.

Buyers who will be traveling out of state with any horses purchased through the sale must obtain and Equine Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (Health Certificate) before crossing state lines.

Terms and Conditions of FORT SMITH HORSE & MULE SALE

*Please read and familiarize yourself with the following Terms and Conditions of the Sale.
You will be bound by these Terms and Conditions of the Sale whether you read them or not.*

LEGALITIES

All livestock offered for sale is done so in accordance with the laws of the State of Oklahoma. Prospective buyers are advised to examine horses thoroughly prior to purchasing.

WARRANTIES

Owner warrants the correct identity and title to each animal free from all adverse claims to ownership, use or possession, and agrees to defend title against any claim.

Seller warrants title and will disclose all known defects, lameness, or faults before time of bidding begins. There is no guarantee of any kind as to the soundness or condition or any other quality of any horse sold except in the case where the owner makes a specific guarantee. Should a soundness issue be noticed within 72 hours of purchase, the buyer is to contact FORT SMITH HORSE & MULE SALE immediately. You will be asked to send in pictures and a video. The horse will need to be brought to FORT SMITH HORSE & MULE SALE to be examined by the Sale Barn Manager. The final decision is to be made by the Horse Sale Manager and all decisions are final. ALL vices, defects, and deformities, irregularities, blemishes, or unsoundness of any kind MUST be announced prior to the horse being auctioned off.

Cribbers, weavers, horses of unsound eyes and wind, cryptorchidic, monorchidic, ridgling, low back, parrot mouth, has had major surgery or a serious illness and horses that have foundered prior to the sale, nerved, or have lameness due to navicular disorder, joint or other bone abnormality, or a neurological disorder such as EPM or wobblers MUST be disclosed prior to the horse being auctioned off. If a horse is sold with a condition that was not disclosed at the time of sale, buyer has the right of return within 72 hours of the time of sale, with all the expenses going to the cosigner. If selling a stud or mare as a reproduction animal, we will require a vet letter stating that they are breeding sound. A stud will require 3 semen test evaluations prior to the sale.

Buyers have the right, at their expense, to have an on-site routine veterinary examination performed by a mutually agreed upon veterinarian on any horse prior to the sale.

CATALOG INFORMATION AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Every reasonable effort has been made to assure correctness of the information printed in the sale catalog. However, as each horse enters the sale arena all participants are cautioned to pay close attention to the announcements made during the sale regarding changes in or additional information from that found in the sale catalog, as such announcements take precedence over the catalog printed material. The catalog and warranty information in the auctions process is provided by and is the sole responsibility of the owner. It is also the owner's responsibility to make certain that only correct statements are made public before or while the horse is in the auction arena.

BIDDING PROCEDURE

The person making the highest bid recognized by the Auctioneer shall be the buyer. If the highest bidder fails to comply with the Conditions of Sale or in the event of a mistake by the Auctioneer, Auctioneer reserves the option to resell the animal and such resale shall terminate all obligations of Auctioneer and the Owner to honor any prior bid.

If a dispute arises between two or more bidders, the horse shall immediately be offered for advance bids solely between those bidders. If there is no advance, the horse shall be sold to the bidder from whom the auctioneer recognized the last bid.

The Auctioneer has the right to decline any bids made by parties who have defaulted in former purchases, or by persons, who in his judgement are not responsible bidders.

TITLE AND POSSESSION

Title passes from owner to buyer at the fall of the auctioneer's gavel. Risk of loss, responsibility, maintenance, care, and expenses for the horse sold move immediately from the seller to the buyer at passing of title. This shall especially be the condition in the case of illness, injury, or death of any horse after it has been sold. In the event of a return of a horse to owner in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of Sale, all risks of loss, injury, sickness, disease, maintenance, and expenses pertaining to the horse pass back to the owner.

SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNT

Settlement of account for any purchase shall be made directly to the sales cashier by the buyer and is to be paid in full on the day of the sale. Methods of payment shall be cash, cashier's check, personalized bank checks which has been verified and approved in advance by officials of FORT SMITH HORSE & MULE SALE, debit or credit card with a 3 percent surcharge added to all debit or credit card payments. No postdated checks will be accepted. Foreign buyers MUST pay with U.S. cash currency or preapproved personalized bank checks from a U.S. bank.

Driver's license or other forms of positive identification are required for buyer registration and personal checks. NO delivery of title will be made until final settlement has been transacted. Upon payment by the buyer to the sale cashier, the cashier will issue a document to the buyer which will release the horse from the auction grounds.

DISCLAIMER

FORT SMITH HORSE & MULE SALE or any representative thereof, does not act as agent for or represent the buyer or seller, but only provides a median for bringing together the buyer and seller for the purpose of a sales transaction. There is no implied or expressed warranty made by the FORT SMITH HORSE & MULE SALE, or any representative thereof, as to the marketability or suitability of any horse for a particular purpose. Further, FORT SMITH HORSE & MULE SALE, or any representative thereof, does not assume or accept any responsibility or liability for errors or commissions, or for any statements, either verbal or written, regarding anything sold.

BINDING ARBITRATION

Any dispute, controversy, difference, or other matter in question arising out of a claim pertaining to warranties shall be settled by arbitration between the buyer and the seller pursuant to the following procedure. Upon the Sale Barn determination that a claim under such Terms and Conditions of sale has been timely and properly presented by the buyer pursuant to these Terms and Conditions of Sale, and upon notice from the Sale Barn, the buyer and owner shall each select a licensed veterinarian. If such veterinarian fails to agree promptly to the validity of the claim, they or the buyer and owner involved in the controversy, shall agree upon a third licensed veterinarian. The third veterinarian fee, expenses and costs shall be paid by the party whose property the horse is determined to be. The panel of three veterinarians shall conduct any tests investigation or examinations which they deem necessary, and may, in their discretion conduct a hearing by notifying the Auctioneer to arrange for the hearing, and shall by majority vote, determine the validity of the claim.

SELLERS

ALL PAPERWORK MUST BE COMPLETE AND PRESENTED TO THE SALE OFFICE. All original registration papers, signed transfers, breeder's certificates, current coggins test and health papers (if applicable) must be in the sale office prior to your horse entering the sale arena. If paperwork is not complete, the horse will not be sold, and appropriate fees will be charged to the consigner.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE ACCURACY OF YOUR HORSES CATALOG ENTRY. PLEASE VERIFY sire, dam and any information pertaining to your horse. Report any errors to the sale office or auction block prior to the time of sale of your horse to ensure proper announcements are made. Hip numbers and stall assignments are assigned by the sale company and cannot be changed by the consigner. Do not remove hip numbers from horses once they have been applied. All horses offered for sale must have a current (6 months old or less) negative coggins test. Any horse offered for sale that has traveled from a state other than Oklahoma must also have a health paper dated no more than 30 days prior to the sale. All vices, defects, and deformities, such as cribbing, weaving, parrot mouth, proud cut gelding cryptorchidic etc., MUST be announced prior to the horse selling. Buyer has the right of return with all expenses incurred going to the cosigner, if the horse purchased was not properly disclosed as having such condition.

BUYERS

Please register at the sale office for a BUYER NUMBER. Carefully read the TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE for this auction and thoroughly inspect any horse of interest prior to bidding. Listen carefully to all announcements made from auction block. Horses become the buyer's responsibility at the fall of the hammer. To remove a horse from the sale grounds, you must obtain a release from the sale office. Please confirm that the release represents the correct hip number. Be sure to give the release to the person ultimately responsible for removing your horse from the sale grounds.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- ALL HORSES MUST GO THROUGH THE SALE RING IN CATALOG ORDER.
- NO ALLEY OR PRIVATE TRADING OR YOU WILL BE BANNED FROM FUTURE SALES.

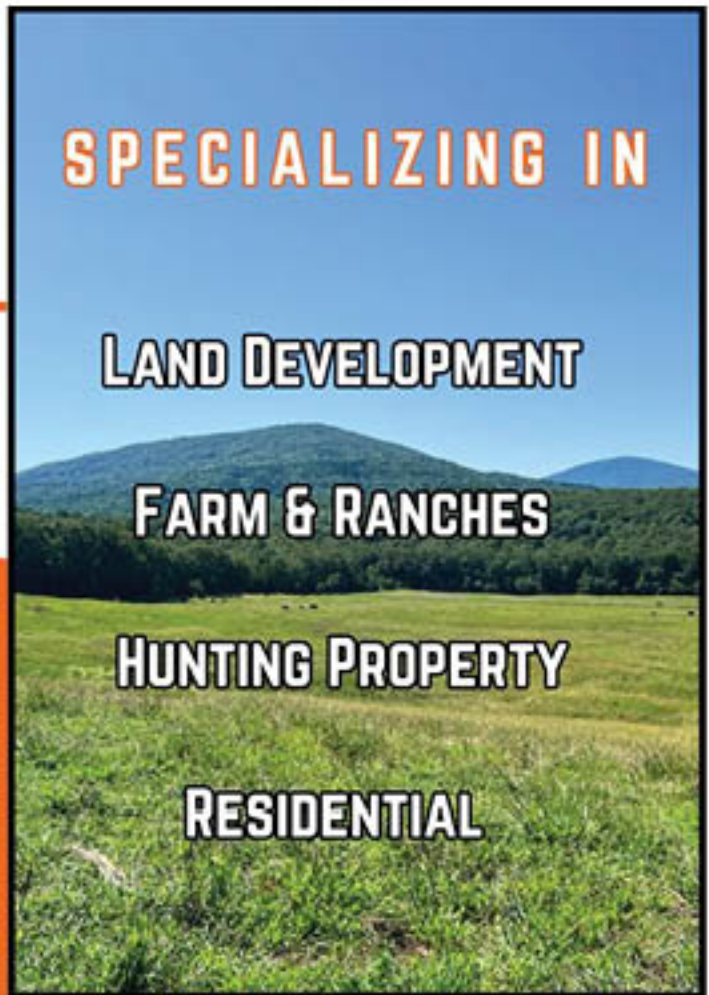

1. Fort Smith Horse and Mule Sale and its associates act as agents only on all sales and are not responsible for buyers/sellers' error or misunderstanding.
2. Terms of the sale are cash, personal check, or credit card.
3. Every animal sells to the highest bidder. The auctioneer will settle any disputes, and his decision shall be final.
4. All perspective buyers must register for a buyer number with the clerks prior to the sale. You must provide your name, complete address, and phone number.
5. Any change in catalog information will be announced from the auction block and will take precedence.
6. Any defects or bad habits must be called before the horse is auctioned off. Example: Cribber, lameness, lowback, or unsoundness.
7. Be sure to inspect any horse of interest to your satisfaction BEFORE you buy. A veterinarian is available prior to sale time to answer any questions. When a horse leaves the ring, all sales are final.
8. Checks and registration papers will be issued after 72 hours.
